The Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity

Dear all,

I hope this newsletter finds you well.

Today's morning worship and reflection comes from Father Rob, the order of service is enclosed. On Thursday, Reverend Tracey brought us a midweek reflection. The text for this is also enclosed.

Last Sunday we resumed worship in the church building. We had a lot of positive feedback although we do recognise that 30 places is a small number, so we will be reflecting on this over the next few weeks and working out how we can increase capacity by offering different kinds of worship experiences at different times. Please bear with us. The telephone booking system continues to work well. If anybody wasn't able to reserve a seat, please do try again for another week. The tickets for Sunday 13th September will be available from tomorrow, Monday 7th September at 12noon. You can call Kathryn between 12pm and 2pm from Monday to Wednesday to reserve a seat. Please note, however, most of the tickets are being reserved on the first day, so if you know you'd like to attend, it would be worth phoning on Monday!

Mothers Union: Good News! We shall be meeting again on Thursday, 10th September, 2.15pm in church for our opening service, to be led by the Vicar. It will be lovely to see everyone again, though, as you will probably realize, we shall have to have our 'catch up' without the usual cup of tea! Remember to bring a face mask. Hand sanitiser will be available.

We continue to open for private prayer between 11am and 1pm on Wednesdays. Please remember to wear a face covering.

Father Wayne and Reverend Tracey send you their best wishes and please do remember they're both only a phone call away if you fancy a chat, or a prayer.

With kind regards

K. Weller
